

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CRYSTAL J. LANKFORD,

Defendant.

4:12-CR-3039

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

The Court has received the revised presentence investigation report in this case. The defendant has filed a sentencing statement (filing 31) objecting to the revised presentence investigation report, and has also filed a motion for variance (filing 30).

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Court will consult and follow the Federal Sentencing Guidelines to the extent permitted and required by United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), and subsequent cases. In this regard, the Court gives notice that, unless otherwise ordered, it will:
 - (a) give the advisory Guidelines such weight as they deserve within the context of each individual case and will filter the Guidelines' advice through the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) factors, but will not afford the Guidelines any particular or "substantial" weight;
 - (b) resolve all factual disputes relevant to sentencing by the greater weight of the evidence and without the aid of a jury;
 - (c) impose upon the United States the burden of proof on all Guidelines enhancements;
 - (d) impose upon the defendant the burden of proof on all Guidelines mitigators;
 - (e) depart from the advisory Guidelines, if appropriate, using pre-Booker departure theory; and

- (f) in cases where a departure using pre-Booker departure theory is not warranted, deviate or vary from the Guidelines when there is a principled reason justifying a sentence different than that called for by application of the advisory Guidelines, again without affording the Guidelines any particular or “substantial” weight.
2. The defendant has filed a sentencing statement (filing 31) objecting to the revised presentence investigation report, and has also filed a motion for variance (filing 30). The defendant's motion for variance is based on her contention that there are unique factors in her life that call for a lower sentence when the § 3553(a) factors are considered. See filing 34. The defendant objects to the revised presentence investigation report on three different grounds:
- (a) The defendant contends that the amount of loss is closer to $600,000 than the $633,998.56 calculated in the report.
 - (b) The defendant argues that the four-level increase for substantially jeopardizing the safety and soundness of a financial institution is unwarranted, because insurance covered the losses and the institution was sold to another credit union.
 - (c) The defendant argues that the two-level increase for abuse of a public or private position of trust is unwarranted.

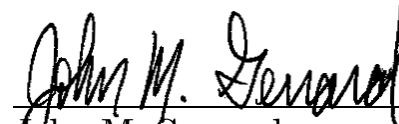

The defendant's objections and her motion for variance will be resolved at sentencing.

3. Except to the extent, if any, that the Court has sustained an objection, granted a motion, or reserved an issue for later resolution in the preceding paragraph, the parties are notified that the Court's tentative findings are that the presentence report is correct in all respects.
4. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, that party shall, as soon as possible (but in any event no later than three (3) business days before sentencing) file with the Court and serve upon opposing counsel an objection challenging these tentative findings, supported by a brief as to the law and such evidentiary materials as are required, giving due regard to the local rules of practice governing the submission of evidentiary materials. If an evidentiary hearing is requested, such filings should include a statement describing why a hearing is necessary and how long such a hearing would take.

5. Absent timely submission of the information required by the preceding paragraph, the Court's tentative findings may become final and the presentence report may be relied upon by the Court without more.
6. Unless otherwise ordered, any objection challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

Dated this 19th day of December, 2012.
